Please describe your event and any planned activities

KingFest25 is a community-led winter festival celebrating Christmas across the parish of Kingswear, including the neighbouring communities of Maypool and Hillhead. The event combines traditional festive activities, live performances, and family entertainment in a safe, well-managed environment.

The day's programme includes:

A Christmas market with local traders and craft stalls (Village Hall)

Children's activities (face painting, bauble colouring, art area)

Afternoon tea & social gathering for senior residents (upstairs hall)

Bell ringing and parish-wide Christmas light switch-on (5:00pm)

Carol concert with mulled wine and mince pies (5:30–6:30pm, Church)

Evening buffet, bar, and live music including sea shanty performances (6:30–10:30pm)

Transport will be provided between Hillhead and Kingswear to support access for elderly and non-driving residents.
